

LCA Contract for Exhibitors 2022

The Leverett Crafts and Arts is not responsible for the care and safety of the works displayed. Because the gallery is not staffed, there is risk in showing small pieces. Either do not show pieces that are easily taken, place them in a protective cover or adhere them to large bases.

The fee for showing in the Barnes Gallery is one hundred dollars ($100). And the fee of seventy dollars ($75) is charged for showing in the Hall Gallery. The fee is required upon submission of this contract.

A commission of 20% is charged on the sale of works exhibited in the gallery.

This fee helps to cover the operating expenses of the gallery and promoting the shows. Checks should be made payable to Leverett Crafts and Arts with a notation that the money is for the commission. It is your responsibility to deliver the check to the office one week after your show closes.

You will be assigned a Contact Person from the Gallery Committee who can answer questions about policy, installation, care of the gallery, receptions, publicity, etc.

The Gallery Guidelines are incorporated herein and made part of this contract.

Group shows shall provide the name of one person responsible for coordinating the show and who will sign the contract and liability waiver on behalf of all Exhibitors. The names and e-mail addresses of all Exhibitors shall be attached.

Your signature here confirms that you will exhibit your art at a mutually agreed upon time and that you will abide by the terms noted above.
